Pascal MAGIS(Aurillac 1955 - Meyrals 2011)UntitledOil on paper mounted on cardboardH. 78 cm; W. 58 cmSigned lower rightCirca 1995Provenance: Private collection, BordeauxPascal Magis was born in 1955 in Aurillac in Cantal, he grew up in the Périgord Noir, in the small village of Meyrals. This town has also become a must-see for lovers of contemporary art, several galleries are located there, including Magis's workshop, kept open by his niece. A graduate of Fine Arts, he specialized in the field of tapestry and became a cardboard weaver. It was from 1988 that he devoted himself exclusively to painting, his favorite field. Magis' work is to be placed in the movement of "lyrical abstraction".Generally working on large formats, he throws on his canvases broad movements bringing the shapes and stains, sometimes drips, in a very controlled gestural writing. His palette is singing, the bright colors rub shoulders with deep hues, the broken contrasts with immaculate whites. Generous and passionate, Pascal Magis, prolific and internationally recognized artist, died very young, at the end of 2011, leaving behind him many major works in abstract art, far from the figurative currents of the artists of Périgord.
