

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Alain Hieronimus "the Seagull And The Wave" Important Aubusson Tapestry, Raymond Picaud

5 200 EUR

Signature : Alain HIERONIMUS (1925 - 2006)

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Wool

Description

Alain HIERONIMUS (1925 - 2006) "THE SEAGULL AND THE WAVE" Important hand-woven Aubusson tapestry Signed lower right and Raymond Picaud Bolduc workshop logo on the back of Ateliers Raymond Picaud, Master Weaver in Aubusson 180 x 257 cm - EUR5,200 - Painter, theater designer, engraver, mosaicist, Alain Hiéronimus devoted a large part of his work to abstract and lyrical compositions. He was president of the society of decorative artists from 1972 to 1973. He notably decorated an apartment on the ocean liner France, and one can also see a work by this mosaic artist at the entrance to the campus of the city of Sceaux. Founded in 1949, Raymond Picaud's workshop was a major player in the revival of Aubusson tapestry in the 20th century, at the end of the Second World War,

Dealer

Quai Favières Antiquités

Antiquaire généraliste

Tel : 04 70 05 43 37

Mobile : 06 88 71 45 46

6 Quai Favières

Montluçon 03100

associating its name and the excellence of its work with the names of renowned artists (Jean Cocteau, Charles Lapicque, Alexandre Calder, Marc Petit, Jean Picart le Doux, Pierre Baudouin, Dominique Fénelon, Alain Cornic, Carmen Charpin, Janine Jacob, Alain Hieronimus, Claude Loewer, Le Corbusier, etc.)

<http://www.quai-favieres-antiquites.com/>