

1900s English Silver-plated Ointment Pot With Coat Of Arms By James Dixon And Sons

280 EUR

Signature : JAMES DIXON AND SONS

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Silver metal

Diameter : 6,7 centimètres

Height : 5,3 centimètres

Description

A silver-plated bottle... Emblazoned with the royal crown... For ointments... With its small spoon in the cap... The cap is screwed on... With a small cork seal to make it airtight... The cap is fully functional... In good condition, some wear from use... Signed by the silversmith JAMES DIXON AND SONS... IN SHEFFIELD - GREAT BRITAIN... From the 1900s... An object that is a bit different from classic bottles... Weight ... 140 gr

Dealer

Signature Antiquité

Collectibles and charm items

Mobile : 0685024976

67 Rue Nationale

Lectoure 32700