Description

A fine German work, Haute-époque, from the very beginning of the 16th century. Our wood is gilded and shows some traces of polychromy. Flat back. The face of our ecclesiastic is strikingly realistic. His face, the structure of the drapery as well as his posture reflect a work of transition between the late Gothic and the beginnings of the Renaissance. Condition of use hands and feet and various losses. Provenance of the prestigious Onzea-Govaerts collection Dimensions of 60 cm high by 17 wide and 6 cm deep. Reference 711
