Goebel - Pelican Polychrome ceramic bird sculpture Germany, 1984 Condition : Piece in perfect condition Ljubisa Mistic is a Serbian ceramist and designer, born in Belgrade in 1948. He is known for his ceramic creations, especially his collaborations with the German manufacturer Goebel in the 1980s. His works, often inspired by the mid-century modern style, are characterized by clean forms and glossy finishes. Among his notable creations for Goebel are stylized animal sculptures, such as pelicans, toucans, and cats, made of polychrome ceramic. Mistic has been a member of ULUPUDS (Association of Artists and Designers of Applied Arts of Serbia) since 1976 and of ADK (German Association of Artists and Craftsmen) since 1978.
