Description

Gorgeous painting by Léon ZEYTLINE titled "man overboard" representing several sailors on board a rowboat heading towards a buoy thrown to a man who has fallen into the water ; in the background, a sailboat faces rough seas, the crew monitors the rescue operation. Note the precision of the details (sailor equipped with a megaphone...) and the perspective which make the scene very alive as well as the exceptional rendering of the waves broken by the boat ! The work for sale also presents a spectacular format of 85 x 91 cms !! If the Parisian works of Léon ZEYTLINE, with particularly careful compositions, represent the reference in terms of belle époque painting in the company of Jean BÉRAUD, Edouard CORTES, Eugène GALIEN LALOUE, Luigi LOIR... his seascapes are also
