Description

Very beautiful Italian chandelier, extremely elegant, from the 19th century, with 2 gilded sculpted supports and 6 gilded wood candlesticks lighting the set of 6 lights* benefiting from today's electrification. This chandelier is exceptionally bright, equipped with rich glassware mounted remarkably and mainly very beautiful pearls followed in volutes or in the spirit of foliage in places, almonds chained on 6 tiered edges and rosettes under candlesticks. The entire structure carries distributed and well-falling pendants, mostly of the chromatic polyface type and others smooth. At the top of the large gilded sculpture is placed a crown creating the illusion of a fountain with drooping roses. A polyface ball finishes the sculpture in a gilded top; a ball of the same style finishes the final fall in a gilded wood
