Description

DescriptionThis evocative oil on board painting by an unknown artist presents a Cubist-inspired view of a Mediterranean townscape, with a rhythmic arrangement of terracotta rooftops and pastel-hued façades. The composition distills architecture into overlapping geometric blocks, using expressive impasto brushwork to heighten the textural and structural quality of each form. An atmospheric interplay of warm siennas and ochres against stormy blue-grays captures the shifting light of dusk, imbuing the scene with a moody, introspective tone. Angular planes and flattened perspectives evoke the early 20th-century Cubist tradition while retaining a lyrical Mediterranean warmth. The painting's sculptural surface and architectural abstraction offer visual depth and emotional resonance,
