Description

Charming impressionist painting circa 1900, signed by the painter Jules Raymond Koenig. This lively scene represents the Luxembourg Gardens in Paris, recognizable among thousands with the large central basin, the fountains, the flowered vases, the tree-lined paths, and the strollers dressed in the fashion of the Belle Époque. In the background we can see the roofs of the Haussmannian buildings. The work is in very good condition, the colors are very beautiful (small pin hole to be noted at the bottom left). It is sold with a wooden frame, in good condition. Dimensions on view: 34 x 26 cm Frame dimensions: 51 x 43 cm The works of Jules Raymond Koenig are quite rare on the market. He was a painter of urban landscapes and scenes of Parisian life, mainly active during the Belle Époque (circa 1890-1910). He is best known for his depictions of Parisian public gardens. As evidenced by this oil on panel, his style mixes naturalist and post-impressionist, with particular attention paid to light, colored shadows, and social life. The photos are taken in natural light. Careful packaging. Shipping costs at the buyer's expense. I remain at your disposal for any information and additional photos.
