

Oil Painting On Canvas From 1750

11 000 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 210

Height : 150

Description

Oil painting on canvas from 1750 (approximately) depicting: Dan Sebastiano pointing out the glory outside the Praetorian Palace to the holy martyrs Marco and Marcelliano. Painting of the Venetian school, attributable to a follower of Paolo Veronese, a grandiose painting with bright but harmonious colors, with a certain attention to light and movement, characteristics of Venetian painting of the eighteenth century, the historical narration, are distinctive features of artists such as Paolo Veronese.

Dealer

Cose del Passato

Antiquités, Restauration

Tel : 0039 3389512441

Mobile : 0039 3389512441

via Giolitti 11

Torino 10123