Description

"Halte en Camargue" illustrated by Robert Dallet in 1989, never reissued. This illustrator and animal painter created several models for the house of Hermès. On this beautiful silk twill square with hand-rolled edges, on an ivory background with green borders, there is a flight of aquatic birds, Purple Heron, Bittern, Green Mallard, Shelduck, Teal....in shades of green, blue-brown and pink, frolicking in the marshes of the Rhone delta. In the center, two pink flamingos complete the decor. The title is centered at the top, the number of the house of Hermès centered at the bottom, the copyright is at the top left, while the illustrator's name is on the side at the bottom right. Dimensions: 89 x 89 cm. Wears its French manufacturing label 100% silk. Very good original condition, used and preserved, both in
