Description
-------------

WALY Faience Plate - 19th century. Polychrome faience plate from Waly from the beginning of the 19th century depicting a crowned eagle (circle) representing this crown) on lightning (forked branch end), it looks like the painter was afraid of his opinions, he is in reserve!. Traces of pernettes on the back. Blue border line typical of this factory. This model is certainly the rarest of the series. Good condition. No repairs. Note however a crack across. Diameter 23 cm
