

Rare Lobed Kakiemon Teapot - Japan Late 17th Century Edo Period

750 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : En l'etat

Material : Porcelain

Height : 9,8cm

Description

A rare lobed Kakiemon teapot. The body of the teapot is decorated with prunus flowers in red, green and blue enamels.
Japan Late 16th century
Edo period (1603-1868)

This teapot is incomplete, the lid and handle are missing, but it is nevertheless a rare and interesting document.

Height (including cover) : environ 9,8cm

Length : 15cm

The lid is missing and the handle is also missing. A metal fitting has been adapted to the teapot in order to provide it with a handle. The metal lid

Dealer

Galerie Drake

Chinese Porcelain & Chinese Works of Art

Mobile : 0689483023

Paris 75011

also has a wooden handle. The teapot has a crack in the neck at the opening of approximately 4cm. The teapot also has a chip on the neck at the opening. Traces of the old handle, probably damaged, can be seen under the frame at the handle.

The condition of the porcelain under the frame cannot be guaranteed, although there are no other visible signs of damage.

Further information and photos on request.