Description

Max Moreau, Belgian painter born in Soignies (Belgium) in 1902 and died in Granada (Spain) in 1992. Settled in Paris in 1920, he returned to Brussels in 1923 and completed his military service there. His talents as a painter, put to the service of several officers, allowed him to obtain more numerous permissions. This is the current portrait, which, as indicated by the lyre on his collar, represents a musician. Canvas dimensions: 50 x 60 cm
