Description

Rare Rolled-Form Vase with Flared Neck in Interlayered Crystal by Ernest Léveillé - Circa 1880 This rare vase by Ernest Léveillé features a rolled cylindrical form with a flared neck, crafted in speckled interlayered crystal. The decoration includes an Art Nouveau-style gilded motif of a wading bird perched on a branch, clearly inspired by Asian art. The base is enamelled to imitate gilt bronze, while the interlayer décor is composed of red oxide sprays fused within the glass. Signature: Point-engraved under the base: E. Léveillé Paris Condition: Wear to the gilding, firing flaw on the reverse; overall good condition Dimensions: Height: 29 cm Period: Circa 1880 Reference: 53
