Description

Rare Rolled-Form Vase with Flared Neck in Interlayered Crystal by Ernest L veill  - Circa 1880
This rare vase by Ernest L veill  features a rolled cylindrical form with a flared neck, crafted in speckled interlayered crystal. The decoration includes an Art Nouveau-style gilded motif of a wading bird perched on a branch, clearly inspired by Asian art. The base is enameled to imitate gilt bronze, while the interlayer d cor is composed of red oxide sprays fused within the glass. Signature: Point-engraved under the base: E. L veill  Paris
Condition: Wear to the gilding, firing flaw on the reverse; overall good condition
Dimensions: Height: 29 cm
Period: Circa 1880
Reference: 53
