

17th Century Carved Wooden Sculpture Of A Crowned Saint

1 200 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Painted wood

Height : 88 cm

Description

Carved Wood Sculpture of a Crowned Saint from the 17th Century. Superb Sculpture, Carved Wood in the Round - Polychrome Bosse, Representing a Crowned Saint. This Sculpture Representing a Crowned Female Figure Standing, Dressed in a Belted Tunic. Her Face, Delicately Sculpted, Wavy Hair Falling on Her Shoulder. One Hand Towards the Chest, the Other Forward, a Gesture of Introspection or Devotion. Very Beautiful Decorative Object, with Sober and Elegant Lines. This Sculpture, of Beautiful Dimensions, with Delicate Curves, whose Role was to Promote Contemplation and Spirituality. It Will Easily Adapt to Your Decoration. This Piece of Beautiful Quality of Execution, It Will Find its Place Among Your Objects of Art and Collections. This Carved Wood Embodies The

Dealer

DANTAN

Mobilier et objets XVIIIème, XIXème, XXème

Mobile : 06.81.50.13.37

Arras 62000

Know-How and Elegance of Sacred Art Objects from the 17th Century. Work from the 17th Century. Dimensions: Height: 88 cm At its widest: 30 cm In a beautiful state of conservation, to be noted, wear of the polychromy, accidents and losses. We are at your disposal, for any additional information.

WWW.DANTAN.STORE