Biography: Giuseppe Dangelico Daeni, better known as Pino, is a celebrated Italian-American figurative artist who is best known for his romantic and intimate paintings, in particular works where his characters inhabit sensuous dressing rooms or boudoirs. He is noted for his talent for capturing the expressions and movements of his subjects. Pino's trademark style is characterized by softly lit females painted with smooth greenish shadows and distinctive, thick pastel-tinted highlights, often with vibrant colored dresses and backgrounds. The artist's female characters are often depicted deep in thought or waiting for their lovers.

Description: This work is a provocative depiction of a young female in her bedroom, her pensive expression and relaxed pose suggests that she is waiting for someone. She holds a piece of red material over her chest, as though she has perhaps been disappointed by her expected guest.

Signed to the bottom left "Pino" and is consistent with the artist's signature. Also signed and dated in hand to the verso.

The current auction record for this artist at auction is 52,650 USD for Coffee in the Kitchen, sold at Jackson Hole Art Auction in 2015. Other notable sales include 28,000 USD for Longing for... and 26,775 USD for Dancing in Marbella, both sold at Coeur d'Alene Art Auction.

Please note. The frame that is included in the pictures above has been added to the artwork by a third party/the seller, as such it is not an integral part of the object. The frame is therefore a gift and is therefore being provided to you at no additional cost so that when your artwork arrives at your house you can display it on your wall. We do not send fixings unless they are already fitted to the frames. Any damage to the frame during transit does not give the buyer a basis for a claim or validate a request for the cancellation of a sale.

We would also point out that whilst we insure all paintings before shipping, we have no control over shipping once we have sent the painting and in most cases the frames are not covered in the insurance we take out for shipping which will only cover the painting.

The successful bidder will be responsible for paying any import duties and any associated taxes in the country of destination. Please refer to the auction terms regarding customs fees and duties before bidding.

All of the art that we sell is insured for shipping (subject to the above). All work will be professionally packed for shipping. We have been getting most paintings shipped to most parts of the EU within 7 working days, but we cannot guarantee time scales once it has left our storage facility as these are totally out of our control and depend on various factors including the buyers speed in responding to custom requests etc. Note: Studio/Gallery photos of paintings on an easel on the published material are intended only to accurately represent the size of the painting within that room environment. Also, please refer to the shipping costs and note the auctioneer's disclaimer regarding customs charges. We cannot calculate these as they are levied in the country of destination and the amount payable is determined by customs at the destination and not by ourselves or the auctioneers. We have experienced some customs charges (import taxes) that are higher than expected so we would advise bidders to attempt to establish the customs fees that you will face before bidding. We must emphasise that it is NOT the UK customs that will be charging you but the customs authorities of the destination of the item. Shipping: 1) Free shipping is offered to the country of origin of the painting (subject to conditions). Please enquire with us prior to purchase. 2) All other EU shipping £903) All other Worldwide shipping is £1504) Shipping to the UK, NI and Ireland is £50 We offer a 14 day returns policy with strict conditions that the painting is returned in the same condition it was when received and packed to the same standard of packaging and fully insured to the price paid to Westcoast Fine Art Ltd for the artwork. Note: The buyer will be liable to pay the customs fees payable in the country of destination. We always advise the purchaser to enquire with local customs authorities to establish customs tariffs prior to committing to purchase. Westcoast Fine Art is a trading name for Westcoast Fine Art Ltd.
