Description

Antique French Art Deco Marquise Ring from the 1910s-1920s Set with Emerald and Diamonds
Discover this remarkable Marquise cocktail ring, emblematic of the French Art Deco style of the early 20th century. At the center of its navette silhouette is an oval emerald of approximately 0.50 ct, highlighted by two old European cut diamonds (? 0.60 ct each), then surrounded by a precise halo of 28 rose-cut diamonds (? 1.00 ct in total). Crafted in 18K (750?) white gold, it is distinguished by its perfectly symmetrical geometric design and delicate milgrain details, characteristic of the period. Technical specifications o Size: French 60 (US 8) - resizable on request o Metal: 18K (750?) white gold o Center stone: Oval emerald, approx. 0.50 ct o Side pieces: 2 old European cut diamonds,
