

Lacquered Mirror, Venice, Around The Mid-18th Century

8 000 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Painted wood

Length : 1

Width : 1

Description

This tabletop mirror features a wide, strongly contoured frame in carved, sculpted, and lacquered wood. The surface is decorated with applied polychrome printed motifs, a technique known as arte povera. The inner and outer edges, along with the small feet at the base, are gilded, adding a refined contrast to the lively decorative elements. The piece is a charming example of Venetian craftsmanship blending elegance with folk-inspired ornamentation.
