Description

19th Century Italian Rectangular Walnut Dining Table with Drawers perfectly restored with a shellac and bee wax finish with a beautiful top realized with four solid walnut boards, three centimetres thick; the crosspieces and turned legs are also made of walnut. Two large drawers lined internally with Varese paper are placed at the longest side. This table is extremely solid thanks to the quality of the material used and dates back to the second half of the 19th century from Lombardy. It represents the most classic and domestic Italian kind of dining or kitchen table of Louis Philippe style. 61 cm is the height up to the undertop band.
