Pair Of 19th Century Silver-plated Hot Plates

480 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

Elegant pair of late 19th century silver-plated plate warmers. They rest on a gadrooned pedestal and are each equipped with 2 handles. The upper tray is removable and the simple set is simply decorated with Louis XVI style fluting. Good overall condition with slight wear to the silver plating and very slight dents visible in the photos. Quality work rare in a pair.
