Description

Rare anyway, rarer for coming complete with cover, and rarer still for being in excellent undamaged condition, this French, Chantilly soft-paste porcelain custard cup and cover was made ca.1750 and is decorated with floral sprigs and sprays in underglaze blue. Maker's marks: Hunting horn in underglaze blue to base. Measurements: Height (inc cover): 8.4cm (3.3in) Width (inc handle): 8.4cm (3.3in) Condition: Excellent. No damage or restoration found (examined under UV light). A couple of tiny glaze "pits" and a tiny overglazed indentation in the edge of the base rim visible under high magnification. Nothing post-production. Shipping: Free to most destinations worldwide. If your destination does not show free shipping, please inquire.
