Description

Folding game console table Napoleon III period Blackened wood with veneers, stringing and marquetry of brass, burgo and casein. 19th century, restored by a professional. Our console offers an ingenious opening to be transformed into a game table to rediscover the elegance and simplicity of this beautiful era. Closed, this rather narrow piece of furniture will fit into any interior, its sobriety and colors allow it to match a modern interior as well as an antique decoration. Legs with ornate columns and double semi-circle X-shaped spacer centered by an urn mounted with brass ornaments in the style of Medici vases.

Restored by a professional cabinetmaker, some details show the marks of time: brass stringing that has been picked up by paint in certain places (see photos) as well as some details such as the
