yellow gold is sumptuously enhanced with a monochrome of natural cognac and yellow diamonds, creating a subtle contrast with the icy brilliance of the white diamonds. This play of refined hues gives the piece a luminous and precious presence. Presumed provenance: This vintage ring, dating from the 1980s, was reportedly custom-ordered from a major jeweler based in Geneva, in the prestigious Rue du Rhône district, a mecca of European fine jewelry. It would have belonged to a private collection gathered by a Franco-Swiss aesthete, a loyal customer of discreet but renowned houses operating between Switzerland and northern Italy.
