Description

BONAS (Jordi), painter and lithographer born in Barcelona in 1937 and died in Touraine in 2017. This artist of Catalan origin, from the Barcelona School of Fine Arts, arrived in Paris in the Montmartre district in 1959. He immediately exhibited in renowned salons such as the Salon des Indépendants. At the same time, he was also a painting restorer for the Museum of Modern Art of the City of Paris. This was followed by exhibitions in many renowned galleries in France and abroad such as the Roussard Gallery in Paris, the Salga Gallery in Rome, Adamo Gallery in New York... An expressionist and figurative painter with compositions sometimes tending towards abstraction, his unique style alone constitutes a signature. This very beautiful work, an oil on canvas from the 1970s, depicting a
