

Etched Bayonet By E. Pack

950 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Wrought iron

Description

German WW2 long etched bayonet made by Ernst Pack & Söhne. Standard textbook Pack etch with a very modern design. Typical Pack grip with two screws in the handle. The zinc grip is in good condition. The black grip plates are uncracked. The blade is very clean, featuring the beautiful Pack etching with the text "Für Erinnerung an meine Dienstzeit" ("For remembrance of my service time"). The backside of the blade is stamped with the E. Pack logo. The black leather buffer pad is still attached around the blade. The original black painted scabbard is in fantastic condition. The bayonet is complete with a black leather frog with grip loop that has a broken off snap button.
