Description
-------------

Very pretty grain lock door. Made from wood, in several parts, joined by a hinge system with other pieces of wood studded with wrought iron. The latch, taking a stylized form is engraved with geometric figures, and is fit with a bar with a metal part in several locations for a small metal bar to lock the system. Nice antique patina, beautiful genuine and very decorative item!

Excellent condition, few wear, without seriousness, no lack or flaw! African working, Mali, from the Dogon ethnic group, probably dating from the beginning of the 20th century, or earlier (my knowledge of First Art being very limited).. Dimensions: 39.5 x 39.5cm x 3cm
