

Adrian Hunter's Helmet, 1915 Pattern, First World War. 29646r

200 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Wrought iron

Description

ADRIAN HELMET FOR HUNTERS, 1915 model, First World War. 29646R Steel helmet with a slightly oval spherical bomb, a visor and a neck cover; on the crest top provided laterally with two ventilation slits. Matte dark blue paint. Front insignia in stamped and cut metal showing a hunting horn with initials "RF", of the French Republic. Headdress in fawn leather of the first type made of a single piece consisting of a headband and seven wolf teeth each pierced with an eyelet for the passage of a lace. Headband of worn fabric in light blue cloth, lined with three corrugated aluminum strips placed against the shell. Chin strap in fawn goat leather. France. First World War. Helmet in good condition.

Dealer

Bertrand Malvaux

Expert agréé par la CNES Chambre Nationale des Experts
Spécialisés

Tel : 02 40 73 36 00

Mobile : 06 07 75 74 63

22 rue Crébillon

Nantes 44000