Description

Original work by Bernard Alligand, a contemporary French artist renowned for his abstract compositions combining collages, materials and pigments. Entitled "Musically", this richly textured piece incorporates fragments of musical scores, reinforcing the dialogue between painting and music, so present in the artist's universe. Dynamic composition with warm tones (ochres, reds, yellows) enlivened by material effects and raised volumes. Signed lower right, titled and authenticated on the back by the artist with the mention Paris and handwritten numbering 100/2 D. Alligand exhibits regularly in France and abroad, and his works are featured in numerous public collections (BnF, museums, cultural institutions of the Persian Gulf, etc.).
