Description

This charming painting depicting a woman in a farmyard on a beautiful sunny afternoon is remarkable for its close-up presence, notably the lean-to with its roof pierced by time, allowing the light to filter through and flood the facade of the house with its light plaster. A beautiful large painting, well framed from the end of the 19th century by the Impressionist School with pretty tones and applied touches; a quality work on a sound and very realistic canvas/frame.
