Description

Impressionist style oil landscape painted in the late 19th century (or early 20th century) depicting a river bank with a bridge in the background. A woman herding two sheep sits in the foreground. The painting is dedicated to my friend Chauffard? and signed P Pacclein?. The painting has some holes and its varnish has yellowed, distorting the colors. It is framed in a gilded frame, without which it measures 33x46 cm.
