ERRO: Guðmundur Guðmundsson, known as Erró, is an Icelandic painter and engraver born on July 19, 1932 in Olafsvik. Erró is one of the founders of a movement called Narrative Figuration in the early 1960s in France. Many artists participated in the emergence of this artistic style such as Valerio Adami, Hervé Télémaque, Peter Klasen. In 1978, one of the artists of this movement, the Peruvian painter Herman Braun-Vega, created a portrait of him with his active participation, where he represents him in his artistic universe inspired by comics, accumulating figurative elements
