Description

We present this 19th century pastel framed in the 1860s, signed HUET Etienne? representing three children certainly the three brothers with an age difference. These portraits even treated in a naive way are so realistic with a church in the background. This pastel has a certain soul and a harmony, an atmosphere created by this painter. I love this pastel, discovered in Chamalières (63) about twenty years ago. Very good condition. (E25)
