Description

A refined pair of 1950s French artisan earrings in 18-karat rose-tinted gold, featuring a stunning sculptural design of stylized leaves and volutes. Handcrafted with elegant volume and openwork, these earrings embody the sophisticated mid-century aesthetic typical of post-war French jewelry. They beautifully catch the light and flatter the face with their airy movement and soft glow. Currently clip-on - posts can be added upon request (additional cost applies). Excellent vintage condition. A rare French design, both characterful and elegant.
