Description

This pair of 1960s Italian ceiling lamps, while not having any brands or signatures, boasts quality in materials and design. Made of transparent Murano glass with a particular decoration that is inspired by the productions of Barovier. The lamps equipped with a light bulb are in perfect condition with rewired electrical system. Perfect for placing in a hallway, an entrance or any room of the house where you need to insert two lights that have continuity in design. These lamps will be a perfect addition to your modern decor and will bring the quality of mid-century Italian design into your home.
