Description

Very pretty little Louis XIII bonnetière in solid walnut. It rests on two square-section rear legs and two ball-shaped front legs, all topped with a molding. It opens on the front with a heavily molded door carved with diamond points at the bottom panel and the top panel, the central panel is decorated with a small molding forming an elongated reserve. The two sides are composed of three thick panels decorated with various triangles with molded contours. The two front uprights are decorated with applied half-columns. Our piece of furniture has undergone restorations, particularly on its rear part, the bottom has been redone and part of a rear leg has been anté. The lock works and has its key. Dimensions: height 186 cm depth to the cornice 60 cm length to the cornice 101 cm depth to the bottom molding 55
