Description

Elegant watercolor by Joseph Megly, depicting a mountain village bathed in light, with its traditional chalets, a church with a slender bell tower, and a summery atmosphere. In the foreground, colorful linens dry in the sun, adding a touch of life to this tranquil scene. The background evokes the gentle slopes of the Alpine massifs, treated with light and fluid washes. The work perfectly illustrates Megly's pictorial sensitivity, his sense of atmosphere, and his mastery of watercolor. Framed under glass in painted wood. About the artist: Joseph Megly is a 20th-century French painter, specializing in landscape watercolor. He distinguished himself with his views of Alpine villages and rural scenes, rendered with great delicacy and a constant attention to light. His work is
