Description

Elegant Emilian salon set in Charles X style, a true example of 19th-century aristocratic furnishing, composed of a sofa, two armchairs and a coffee table. The ensemble stands out for its imposing structure, refined carved and gilded woodwork, and numerous high-quality ornamental details.1. SofaThe sofa is adorned with a majestic noble coat of arms carved at the top center of the backrest, indicating its origin from a high-ranking family. The gilding, with floral and ornamental motifs, continues seamlessly across the backrest, armrests, and legs.2. ArmchairsThe two armchairs, matching the sofa, feature curved backs and an equally elaborate structure. Each piece is enriched with detailed carvings along the frame and armrests, with bright gilding enhancing their elegant silhouette.3. TableThe table features a richly carved central support with floral motifs and volutes, resting on four decorated and gilded legs that harmonize with the rest of the set. The top is currently missing, exposing the base, which still showcases the craftsmanship of the period.ConditionThe salon is in good overall condition: the structures are solid and well-preserved. There is an ongoing woodworm attack that will soon be treated. Some chipping is visible, particularly on the legs and in gilded areas. Only a small carved detail is missing on the table. Overall, the gilding remains rich and continuous, with floral and decorative motifs typical of the style.This set represents a fine example of noble craftsmanship and design from the Charles X period, a time when attention to detail and gilding were hallmarks of luxury and prestige.Dimensions:Table: H 77 × 99 × 82 cmArmchairs: H 107 × 57 × 45 cm - Seat height 50 cmSofa: H 127 × 205 × 58 cm - Seat height 46 cmWorldwide shipping available.
