Description
-------------

Large 234 cm long Louis XV period sideboard in molded and carved oak. This wood paneling piece rests on a scalloped plinth, the middle part with a projection opening with two doors revealing a shelf. On the sides, two doors revealing a shelf and a drawer. Molded oak top. This piece of furniture, which was to be embedded in wood paneling, has been consolidated and restored over time, especially on the back. Period mid-18th century. Given the large dimensions, I would prefer delivery by myself (please allow two additional people to help me unload it and install it at your home). However, I can send it to you by carrier on a double pallet, delivery to the "back" of the truck on the sidewalk in front of your home by the delivery person, 500 euros in France, 1500 euros
