khaleeji is a spicy and bitter coffee traditionally served during holidays such as Eid al-Fitr. # Kuwait, Iraq, Bahrain, Oman, Qatar, Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates make up the Persian Gulf states. The color whose symbolism is easiest to understand is gold; its connections with the sun and gold have made it an emblem of divine power, perfection and majesty. # Brasses are yellow alloys, very ductile and malleable, composed mainly of copper and zinc, in variable proportions, whose direct manufacture from suitable ores was already mastered by metallurgists before Antiquity.
