Description

This exquisite women's ring showcases a rich, oval-cut vivid blue sapphire of approximately 1.10 carats, bezel-set in warm 18K yellow gold (750?). Surrounding the central gem are ten scintillating old mine cut diamonds totaling around 0.30 carats, each delicately nestled in scalloped settings that evoke a gently blooming flower. The cluster sits atop a slender, polished band that splits slightly as it rises, lending graceful support to the head and ensuring comfortable wear. Light plays beautifully through the open gallery beneath, illuminating the sapphire's depth and the diamonds' vintage scintillation. Offering both timeless elegance and refined craftsmanship, this piece is perfect for daily luxury or special occasions. Ring Size: FR 56 / US 7 ½ Period: Mid-20th Century (c.
