Diameter : tdd : 55 (mise à taille possible)

Description

Charming ring dating from the early 19th century, adorned with a floral motif delicately set with rose-cut diamonds. The flower is highlighted against a deep blue glass background, framed by a diamond entourage. The setting combines 18-carat gold with silver, as was customary at the time. These sentimental rings, rich in symbolism, were often offered as a token of love or attachment. French work, early 19th century.

Weight: 6.22 g
