

Antelope (hippotragus Niger), Taxidermy Hunting Trophy

1 080 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Other

Height : 140 cm

Description

sable antelope (scientific name: Hippotragus niger). This is a naturalized hunting trophy (taxidermy), beautiful posture, slightly turned head, chic, long horns, ringed and curved backwards (present in both sexes but longer in the male), dark coat, almost black in adult males; animal from sub-Saharan Africa, particularly in the wooded savannahs of the south-east of the continent (Zambia, Angola, Mozambique, Zimbabwe)

Dealer

Galerie Particulière antiquités

Généraliste

Mobile : 0612511221

3 rue Bailleul

Fresnay-sur-Sarthe 72130