Description

This beautiful and heavy seal is decorated with a bust of a young woman crowned with flowers, a bird on the shoulder in chased silver resting on a base with a gadrooned vermeil base. The bust is framed with silver volutes decorated with billets and enameled in plique à jour blue red yellow and green, characteristic of the work of the Viennese silversmith Georg Adam Scheid. The seal bears the letters SFAX in cursive surmounted by three five-pointed stars. Signed GAS at the base of the bust. Austria hallmark greyhound head on the other side. On the rim above the gadroons, on one side a bigorne census hallmark and on the other an unidentified hallmark. Superb condition, intact enamel! Vienna period late 19th century circa 1880. Dimensions 4.5cm x 3.3cm Weight 24g
