Description

Large Bambara Mali crest mask. These masks were worn during agricultural festivals, this one is the female and her young, it represents an antelope. It still has its rattan headdress covered with fabrics, cowries and animal fringes, small glass bead jewels, it is very rare to have them complete like here. Good condition, beautiful brown patina of use. Former collection of Doctor REDOR. Height 100 cm. Delivery by my carrier. We are at your disposal for any request, please contact us by telephone (07 67 01 11 47) or by email (paymal.michel@gmail.com).
