Description

Charming still life presenting two beautiful colorful bouquets, arranged on a serving trolley between the pieces of a porcelain luncheon. The paste is frank, sometimes thick, giving a beautiful vigor to the whole. The background evokes striped wallpaper and the light of a window. The work is in very good condition. It is signed top right. It is offered in a modern frame, also in very good condition. This work was created by Léonard Tauty, a painter from Lyon active during the 20th century.
