Description

A 19th-Century Masterpiece: Landscape with Lady on Horseback and Children

This oil on canvas, attributed to Charles James (1851-1906), is a work of art that enchants with its elegance, storytelling, and refined technique. The painting captures the romantic spirit of the 19th century with soft light and a serene atmosphere.

A scene rich in detail and emotion

The composition features a noble lady on horseback, accompanied by two children, set in a pastoral landscape. Every element is thoughtfully rendered: the graceful movement of the horse, the tender expressions, and the perfect harmony between figures and nature. Gentle brushwork and subtle tones reflect the finest of 19th-century English painting.
