Description

Art Deco style ring in platinum (mascaron head hallmark) of generally oval shape, adorned in its center with a you and me of brilliant-cut diamonds in a bezel setting. This ring nevertheless tends to the marquise shape, which is essentially given by the design of a calibrated emerald contrasting with the two central diamonds. These emeralds are of particularly beautiful quality due to their strong color and fine crystallization. Like Art Deco rings, this ring has a double entourage because the emeralds are themselves highlighted by lines of 8/8-cut diamonds, on a delicately openwork volume. A shoulder of diamonds allows you to see, when worn, only stones, and the finesse of the setting in accordance with Art Deco rings is rendered by finely beaded edges. Its delicately crafted basket
