Description

Pair of vintage earrings in 750/°° white gold (18 KT, hallmarked ..), in the shape of crescents, abundantly adorned with fine rubies and brilliant-cut diamonds. The latter constitute the basis of the design of these earrings: one axis winds in a spiral, while others are set within navette patterns. By the profusion of rubies distributed in an aerial manner around this spiral, these earrings evoke the paisley pattern. Beautiful in size, they are also skillfully worked in relief which further accentuates the pattern with a beautiful domed shape. Complex and careful jewelry work, using high-quality stones, the rubies presenting in particular a beautiful color of a frank red as well as a beautiful liveliness. Their closure system consists of a rod (for pierced ears) combined with a clip for a better hold. If you do
